ABOUT PACICAN

Founded in 2004, Shanghai Pacican Academy specializes in providing English language training, professional skills training and international cultural and educational exchange programs. Between 2004 and 2015, Pacican Academy organized professional training for more than 8,500 Chinese teachers in Shanghai. Pacican is well managed and enjoys a high reputation in the field of English education. Pacican has been awarded Five-A Ranking (the highest ranking) as Non-State-owned Non-Manufacturing Organization by Shanghai Municipal Government for six consecutive years already. Pacican maintains a regular team of over 150 full-time foreign teachers annually (more than half are returning teachers, a dozen have been teaching at Pacican for more than nine / ten years already).

Pacican provides many English programs catering to the middle-class Chinese families. Pacican General Oral English Program (GO) is one of them. GO! is an English as a Second Language program designed in cooperation with the District School Board to supplement the standardized English curriculum. The primary objective of this course is to develop students' oral facility using Oxford English structures and lexical sets, as well as to build upon those standards when possible.
